

THE EVENING SUN
1952

HIRAM B. WORKMAN

Word has been received by friends in Littlestown of the death of Hiram B. Workman, manufacturer in Lititz, who died at his home there on Saturday at 1 o'clock after being bedfast for 18 weeks. The deceased was within one month of his 86th birthday. The funeral will be held on Tuesday at Beck's funeral home in Lititz at 11 a. m. and interment will follow in Lititz. Mr. Workman is the father of Carl Workman, who is married to the former Margaret Basehoar, daughter of George W. Basehoar, West King street, Littlestown. He is well known in the Littlestown area from his frequent visits.