OBITUARIES

Winifred Joan Cullen
Safier
1914 - 2008

Joan, 93 of Lancaster fondly called "Queenie" by her family, because of her cute queen like wave died on Thursday evening at Conestoga
View after a brief illness.
She was the wife of Eugene Safier who preceded her in death. The family is very grateful to the staff of Hospice of Lancaster County and the Nurses and Aides at CV for their wonderful care of Joan in her last months of life.
Joan was born in Lancaster-shire, England

to John Cullen and Mabel Whitehead Cullen in 1914. She was the eldest of ten children.
She came to the United States with her parents and siblings and they settled in Newark, New Jersey. She worked in Information and Public Relations for the Army in the World War II effort and was very proud to have become a U.S. citizen. She married Eugene Safier and they lived in Northern New Jersey, finally settling in Livingston, where she was a member of St. Philomena's R.C.
Church. Joan was retired from the Essex County Park Commission, with numerous awards for her dedication and hard

Over four years ago she moved to Lancaster, where she resided with her daughter and son-in-law, Mimi Shapiro and Paul Engleheart. She attended the Neighborhood Senior Center and Adult Day Care at Regional Hospital. She really enjoyed getting out and doing so many activities each and every day. Joan was a warm and caring person, and she never met a person she didn't like, always having a kind word to say about

Model's body found in River Seine

BY JOHN LEICESTER
Associated Press

PARIS — The body of Katoucha Niane, one of the first African women to attain international stardom as a model and a vocal opponent of female genital mutilation, was found in the Seine River, police said Friday.

Known simply as Katoucha, the former top model for Yves Saint Laurent and other top designers was found Thursday near the Garigliano bridge in Paris, judicial police in Paris said.

An autopsy showed no signs of foul play, pointing to the el. Her big break came when Jules-Francois Crahay, then the designer at Lanvin, spotted her in a line-up. The label hired her as a fitting model. Her first catwalk modeling was for Thierry Mugler at the start of the 1980s.

After quitting the runway, she turned to speaking out actively against female circumcision, describing her own experience at age 9 in a book, "Katoucha, In My Flesh," which was published last year.

"I will never get the incomparable pain out of my head," she wrote in the book, which she dedicated to her three chil-
