

Glen P. Dalrymple, Jr.

Glen P. Dalrymple, Jr., age 83, of Lancaster, PA, passed away on Thursday at St. Anne's Retirement Community.

Born in Greybull, WY, he was the son of the late Glen P. Sr. and Bertha O'Connor Dalrymple. He and his wife, Dorothy "Dotty" Jean Vanek Dalrymple, celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary on June 18th.

Glen was a graduate of Greybull High School, Reed College in Portland, OR and received a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Journalism from the University of Wyoming.

He served in the U.S. Army during WW II reaching the rank of Sergeant. He received the Purple Heart for an eye injury he received during the Battle of the Bulge.

Glen was employed for forty years in sales, marketing and advertising for the former Armstrong Cork Company.

He was a member of First Presbyterian Church for fifty-nine years. He served on the board of the Community Art Gallery in Musser Park for six years, a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, a fraternity at the University of Wyoming and volunteered as a museum guide at Brandywine River Museum in Chadds Ford. Glen enjoyed music, arts, food, family and sponsoring Native Americans.

Surviving in addition to his wife are a son, Scott Dalrymple, Round Rock, TX, daughter, Jane, wife of Francis R. Costello, Westport, CT, two grandchildren, Lydia and Richard and a sister, Shirley Young, San Jose, CA.

A memorial service time to be announced at a later date. Please omit flowers. If desired, memorial contributions may be sent to The Deacon Fund of First Presbyterian Church, 140 E. Orange St., Lancaster, PA 17602. Fred F. Groff, Inc., www.lifecelebration.com