

John Shelley Dies at Age 85

John S. Shelley, eighty-five, 69 N. Charlotte St., Manheim, died Thursday at the General Hospital after an illness of one month.

Born in Rapho Twp., he was a son of the late Samuel and Fannie Stern Shelley, and was a retired night watchman at the Manheim Manufacturing and Belting Co. He was a member of Ruhl's Evangelical United Brethren Church, and for 15 years was a supervisor in Rapho Twp.

Shelley

He and his wife, the former Minnie Lehn, celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary Dec. 7.

In addition to his wife, surviving are a son and four daughters: Grace, wife of Paul Brubaker, and John S. Shelley Jr., both of Manheim R4; Eva L. Shelley, at home; Ada, wife of Benjamin Stekervetz, Mount Joy; and Anna, wife of Rufus Geib, Manheim R2.

Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, three great grandchildren and two sisters: Mrs. Maggie Ginder, Elizabethtown; and Mrs. Sadie Stauffer, Mastersonville.