

Shirley Shenk, L. S. King are wed

Sat. 28, March 1964

Miss Shirley Ann Shenk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam M. Shenk, Manheim R1, and Laurence S. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elam S. King, Atglen R1, were united in marriage Saturday at the East Petersburg Mennonite Church. Bishop Paul E. Landis, assisted by the Rev. John Shenk, officiated at the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with a scalloped neckline featuring rose embroidery. She carried white feathered carnations.

Miss Doris Peters, Lititz, cousin of the bride was the maid of honor. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Karen Shenk, niece of the bride, and Miss Darlene Rohrer, niece of the bridegroom.

Melvin King, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushering were John Shenk, brother of the bride, James Herr, Robert Yoder and Clair Sauder.

An octet presenting the music at the church included Mrs. Anna Stoltzfus, Mrs. Dorothy King, Mrs. Pluma Hostetter, Miss Rose King, Nathan King, Melvin Lapp, John Hess and Kenneth Mast.

Following a reception held at Hostetter's Banquet Hall, Mount Joy, with Mrs. Lester Groff at the organ, the couple left for a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains. Upon their return, they will live at Atglen R1.

MRS. LAURENCE S. KING

The bride was graduated from East Hempfield High School and attended Eastern Mennonite College, Harrisonburg, Va. The bridegroom was graduated from Lancaster Mennonite School and Ontario Bible Institute, Canada. He is engaged in farming.