

William D. Green

William D. Green, 74, of Narvon, died peacefully Thursday, August 7, 2008 at his home after a brief illness. He is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Mi-chiko Green.

Born in West Grove, he was the son of the late William F. and Helen (Bowman) Green.

Bill was a diesel mechanic and a long-time employee of the former Mushroom Transportation. He had retired from McMinn's Paving.

A veteran of the Korean Conflict, he was an active volunteer with the P. J. Bair Post 7418, V.F.W., Gap, where he served two terms as Commander. He also enjoyed boating and fishing and was a motorcycle enthusiast and family man.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by seven children: Patricia A. married to Michael Logue, New Hope; Carol M. Wallace, Narvon; James B. married to Kathleen Green, Strasburg; Jeanette L. married to Brian Graybill, Lancaster; Douglas W. married to Lori A. Green, Drumore; Cynthia G. married to Bryan Eberly, Brownstown; Mark W. Green, Orlando, FL; 15 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and three sisters: Dorothy Phipps, West Grove; Marge Shelton, Williston, SC; and Linda Stryholuk, Galena, MD.

His funeral will be held on Tuesday, August 12, at 3 PM at the Groff-High Funeral Home, 145 W. Main St., New Holland with Pastor Beth Engle officiating. Interment will be in Pequea Presbyterian Cemetery. A viewing will be held at the funeral home on Tuesday from 1 to 3 PM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Lancaster County, PO Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17604-4125. Online condolences may be posted on our website:
