

Grover C. Foehlinger, Sr.

Grover C. Foehlinger, Sr., 86, of Columbia, died Monday, June 16, 2008. He was the husband of Helen S. Landis Foehlinger, with whom he would have celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary on July 5, 2008. He was an inspector for the Federal Government, having retired from the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot and also worked for Wyeth Laboratories. A member of St. James Evangelical Lutheran Church. A veteran of the US Army during WWII serving in Normandy on D-Day. A member of Columbia Lodge #286 F&AM. He was very interested in and collected Civil War memorabilia, which included battle scenes, books and movies. He enjoyed his flower beds, his gardens and yard work. He was a lover of cats and dogs. He and his wife also traveled back to Normandy on the fiftieth anniversary of D-Day in 1994.

Surviving in addition to his wife, a son: Dr. Grover C. Foehlinger, Jr., Catonsville, MD.

The funeral service will be held at the Kraft-Workman Funeral Homes, Inc., 31 South Eighth Street, Columbia on Friday, June 20, 2008 at 11:00 A.M. with Rev. Mark S. Kopp officiating. Interment in Ironville Methodist Cemetery. Friends may call at the Kraft-Workman Funeral Homes, Inc. on Friday from 10:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. with a Masonic Service to be held at 10:30 A.M. Please omit flowers. Memorial contributions may be made in his memory to: St. James Evangelical Lutheran Church, 655 South 10th Street, Columbia, PA 17512.