

Dorothy May Andrew

Dorothy May Andrew, 86, formerly of Manheim, died peacefully on Wednesday December 10, 2008 at Moravian Manor, Lititz. She was the wife of the late Rev. Wilmer J. Andrew. Born in Lancaster, she was the daughter of the late Jay E. and Ruth (Hostetter) Barley. Dorothy was a dedicated homemaker most of her life, but for a short period she was a Bell Telephone operator while her husband served the U.S. Army during WW II. She was a graduate of East Lampeter High School. After her husband graduated from seminary she accompanied him to the mission fields of Bangladesh and Haiti for many years. She was a member of the First Church of God of Lancaster, and served as a former president of the WCSC, and also was a member of the Farm Women's Society of Lancaster County. Dorothy was known for her cooking skills and collected cookbooks.

Surviving is a son Dennis W. husband of Cindy (Myers) Andrew of Manheim; a daughter Lorraine wife of Don Isaacs of Hollywood, FL; seven grandchildren Amy Howett, Jay Andrew, Corey Andrew, Holly Scott, Hope Mayes, Adam Sweigart, and Kara Addis, and ten great-grandchildren.

In addition to her husband and parents she was preceded in death by two brothers, Lloyd and Tom Barley, and two sisters Marian Harmes and Elizabeth Fitzgerald.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend her viewing at the Buch Funeral Home, 21 Market Square, Manheim PA on Sunday, December 14, 2008 from 6:00-8:00 P.M. Services and interment in Manheim Fairview Cemetery will be for family members.

The family requests that contributions in Dorothy's memory be sent to the First Church of God, Mission Fund, 344 W. Chestnut St., Lancaster PA 17603. Buch Funeral Home, Manheim is in charge of arrangements. For further information or to send the family a message of condolence you may visit our website at www.buchfuneral.com.
