

Martha C. Beard

Martha C. Beard, 86, widow of James A. Beard of Schaefferstown, daughter of the late Eloda Weigand and Albert Christener of Lititz, died September 4th in the Masonic Village of Elizabethtown.

Martha was the organist at the Coleman Chapel for thirty years and she taught in elementary schools in Vogansville, Myerstown and Annville before retiring. She is survived by her son, David Beard, her daughter Mary Ann Beard, many nieces and nephews, grand and great grandchildren.

A private memorial ceremony will be held later.