

DIED.

YODER, Rev. Jonathan, at Churchtown, Jan. 23, of dropsy and pneumonia, aged 70; left wife and one daughter—Mrs. Roland D. Good.

BILLET, Harvey, son of William, in Columbia, Jan. 31, after long illness, aged 20.

LANDIS, Barbara, daughter of Alvin and Annie M., at Hinkletown, Jan. 25, of whooping cough, aged 5.

EBY, Martha, widow of Elias, Jan. 31, in East Donegal, of apoplexy; left 8 married children.

MILLER, David L., in Mt. Joy, Feb. 1, of old age, in his 75th year; left wife and 6 adult children.

STRICKLAND, Geo., a native of this county, Jan. 30, in Reading—found dead in his bed—30 years after death of his wife; left one son.

ROHMER, Christian F., son of Christian H. Rohrer of Mountville, Jan. 30, in Manor (at Letort), of acute meningitis, aged 33; left wife and 2 sons.

ANDREWS, Mary, widow of Dr. Jas. P. Andrews (who died in 1875) and a native of this city but long a resident of Colerain, died Jan. 29, in Oxford, in her 88th year; left 3 sons; interred at Union Presbyterian church.

RAFF, Leah, widow of John B., Jan. 29, at home of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Kendig of West Lampeter, aged —; left 3 married children.

WRIGHT, Martha, wife of John Wright of Drumore twp., Jan. 30, at home of her son-in-law, Calvin Appleton, at Belair, Md., while she and her husband were on a visit there, in her 71st year, just a half hour after her granddaughter's husband, Harry We sh, died in the same house; left 4 married children.

ROWE, Christian, a Strasburg merchant since 1854, formerly chief burgess of the town and for the past 3 years president of the First National Bank, Jan. 30, of heart disease, aged 78; left wife and son—Dr. Ross R. Rowe of Reading.

KALBFELL, Rosa C., wife of John M., in this city, Jan. 30, of apoplexy—stricken while in a grocery store a few hours earlier—aged 50; left 8 children and 11 grandchildren.

BARCLAY, John, at Bethesda, Jan. 28, aged 78; left wife and 6 married children.

CARPENTER, John E., in this city, Jan. 29, of apoplexy, aged 78; left 3 married children.

STAUTER, B. F., formerly of Akron, Jan. 29, at German Hospital, Phila., aged 38 and unmarried; interred at Akron.

HARNISH, Susan S., widow of John (who died in 1858), Jan. 28, in Manheim, aged 75; left 1 daughter, interred at Silver Spring.

POIST, Mary (widow), born in Maytown, died Jan. 29, at home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Brady, in this city, aged 76; left 4 married children.

PURVIS, Elizabeth, widow of Samuel and a native of Ireland, Feb. 2, at home of her son, Rev. Dr. S. W. Purvis, in Columbia, of apoplexy, aged 69; interred in Phila.

WENGER, Annie (widow), Feb. 2, at home of her son-in-law, Rev. I. H. Witmer, in Bareville, of cerebral hemorrhage, aged 72; left 7 married children.

KREPPS, Michael, in this city, Feb. 2, at home of his niece, Mrs. Edw. Hardy, in his 73d year; wife survives; was a Union soldier for 4 years in First Regiment Penn'a light artillery.

LANCASTER INQUIREE
FEB 6, 1909