

Alice L. Hassler

Alice Hassler, 91, formerly of Adamstown, died June 10, 2008, in her Spring Twp. residence. Born in Fritztown, a daughter of Harry and Sallie (Kelschner) Weller, her husband, Harold Hassler, died April 23, 1982. A member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Adamstown, she worked for Bollman Hat Co. Alice loved flowers, shopping, her redwork stitchery and watching TV (especially NASCAR, Phillies Baseball and game shows) with her best friend, Betty Potts, grandson, wife and son, Kevin, Sue and Brody. Her family will miss her calls every day to ask, "What are you making for supper?" Surviving: daughters, Janet M. Keener, Shillington; Dolores F. (Paul A., Jr.) Gantert, Stevens; and Caroline A. (Richard W.) Cox, Sinking Spring; 13 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; and brother, Harold Weller, Leesport. She was also predeceased by son, Donald Richard Hassler; 2 great-grandchildren; sister, Annie Weitzel; and brother, Earl Weller.

FUNERAL: Saturday, June 14, 10 AM, Good Funeral Home, Reamstown. BURIAL: Cedar Grove Cemetery VIEWING: Saturday 9-10 AM. Kindly omit flowers; contributions to Heartland Hospice, 4 Park Plaza - Suite 105A, Park Road North, Wyomissing, PA 19610.

www.goodfuneral.com