Isaac K. Eby

Isaac K. Eby, 77, of Ephrata, went home to be with his Lord on Monday, April 28, 2008, at Ephrata Community Hospital. He died peacefully following a recent diagnosis of cancer.

Born in Terre Hill, he was a son of the late Aaron B. and Edna Sensenig Eby. He was the husband of Janet L. Lynch Eby. They celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary on October 1, 2007.

Isaac was a dairy farmer in Ephrata and Clay Townships from 1958 until 1979 and an owner/operator for Clay Trucking from 1979 to 1997.

He was a member of Indiantown Mennonite Church where he was a chorister and taught Sunday school for many years. He enjoyed hunting and was a member of Stony Brook Hunting Camp, Lycoming County, PA. He was a member of the Word of Truth Quartet and the Cheerful Anthems Men's Chorus and enjoyed playing guitar. Isaac and his family enjoyed annual trips to the mountains and the beach.

Isaac will be lovingly remembered by his wife and children, Karen J., wife of Leonard S. Nolt of Lititz, Sandra E., wife of J. Larry Breneman of Washington Boro, Charlotte E., wife of Steven L. High of Denver, and Philip L., husband of Crystal A. Swartzentruber Eby of Ephrata; 9 grandchildren, Bradley, husband of Jennifer Nolt, Jennifer, wife of Duane Bollinger, Tyler and Krista Breneman, Amber, Stephanie and Matthew High, and Madeline and Erin Eby; 4 great grandchildren, Aubrie and Carter Bollinger, and Amanda and Sarah Nolt; and brothers, A. Lester Eby of Atglen, and John C. Eby of Ephrata.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Eileen M. Eby, brothers, Richard S. and Clyde S. Eby, and sister, Elta R. Martin.

A viewing will be held from 6 to 9 P.M., Wednesday, April 30, 2008, at Indiantown Mennonite Church, 255 Indiantown Rd., Ephrata, and on Thursday, May 1, 2008, from 9 to 10 A.M. followed by his funeral service at 10 A.M. with Revs. Stephen L. Martin, Jay Weaver and Paul Snader officiating. Interment

OBITUARIES

Dr. Marlin E. Wenger

Marlin E. Wenger, MD, FACP, 68, of Manheim Township, passed away at the Essa Flory Hospice Center on Saturday, April 26, 2008, after a two-year struggle with pancreatic cancer. He is survived by his loving wife of 42 years, Jane Arlene Idell Wenger. Marlin was born in Paradise, Pennsylvania, on November 9, 1939 to Samuel Stoner and Ella Mae Esbenshade Wenger.

He graduated from Pequea Valley High School in 1957 and was elected to the inaugural Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001. Marlin went on to Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana, where he and his brother, Sam, helped institute the soccer program, serving as coach of the 1959 team.

After graduating from Goshen College, Marlin attended Temple University School of Medicine and was elected to the Alpha Omega Alpha Honorary Medical Society. A rotating internship followed at Lancaster General Hospital. For two years, he served as a house officer in Adult Medicine and Pediatrics at Glenwood Hills Hospital, Minneapolis, Minnesota, in fulfillment of his military service obligation.

Marlin received his residency training in Internal Medicine at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota, followed by a fellowship in Rheumatology at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

In 1972, Marlin received board certification in Rheumatology and Internal Medicine, the inaugural group of Rheumatologists to be certified in this country. The following year, he established a clinical practice of Rheumatology in Lancaster, which developed into Lancaster Rheumatology Associates, a member of Lancaster General Medical Group. Marlin served as managing physician. He and his colleagues developed a clinical densitometry program for the evaluation and management of patients with osteoporosis. In addition to the consultative Cardiothoracic Surgery, the Trauma Unit, and the purchase of 25 acres for the development of the LGH Health Campus. In 2001, Marlin received the Henry S. Wentz MD award for outstanding contributions to LGH Graduate Medical Education and the Lancaster County Community.

Marlin was a member of the American College of Physicians and Surgeons, the American Medical Association, the Pennsylvania Medical Society, the Lancaster County Medical Society, the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, the International Society for Clinical Densitometry, the Mennonite Medical Association, the University of Michigan Rheumatology Society, and the Pennsylvania Osteoporosis Society. He was a Fellow of the American College of Physicians (FACP) and the American College of Rheumatology. Marlin served in executive offices of the American Society of Clinical Rheumatology and on the Governor's Task Force on Arthritis, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. During the 33 years of his medical practice, Marlin held the title of Assistant Professor of Clinical Medicine of Temple University. Since 1973, he served on the Board of Directors for the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation and was President, 1979-1980.

Marlin attended St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lancaster, where he was a member of the choir and served as Church Council Member, 1997-2000. He was a member of the Mill Creek Hunting Club. Marlin enjoyed fishing, woodworking, listening to classical music and opera, and vacationing on the Outer Banks, NC. He was a long-time supporter of the Lancaster Symphony Orchestra and other civic organizations.

In addition to his wife, Marlin is survived by his children, Brent I. married to Pamela D. Wenger of Lancaster, Maria K. Wenger married to Adam W. Kois, Jr., of Fanwood, NJ, Chad I. Wenger of Dania Beach, FL, and grandchildren, Robert C. Wenger, Luke I. Wenger and Graham W. Kois. He is also survived by two brothers, Samuel E. married to Ruth Wenger of Akron, PA, Richard E.
