

Bishop Clarence Lutz Of Elizabethtown, Dies

Bishop Clarence E. Lutz, 69, assistant moderator of the Lancaster Mennonite Conference, died unexpectedly at 4:35 a.m. Monday at his home at 621 N. Hanover St., Elizabethtown. He had been under the care of a physician.

He was the husband of the late Ruth L. Lutz, who died Aug. 4, 1972.

Bishop Lutz was the founder of the C. E. Lutz Inc., oil and tire distributor in Elizabethtown.

He was ordained to the Christian ministry in June 1937, and in February of 1950 he was ordained a bishop for the Elizabethtown District of Lancaster Mennonite Conference.

BOARD MEMBER

In addition to being assistant moderator, he was also a member of the Mennonite Publication Board and was affiliated with a number of other church boards and committees.

Born in East Donegal Twp., he was a son of the late Abram B. and Annie Erb Lutz.

He is survived by two sons, James C., Elizabethtown, and John A., Quechee, Vt.; one daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Lutz, at home, and seven grandchildren.

BISHOP CLARENCE LUTZ

LUTZ — Entered into rest in Elizabethtown, Pa. on March 5, 1973, Bishop Clarence E. Lutz, husband of the late Ruth L. Herr Lutz, of 621 North Hanover Street, Elizabethtown, Pa. in his 70th year. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the Elizabethtown Mennonite Church, South Spruce Street, Elizabethtown, Pa. on Thursday at 2 P.M. with Bishop Russell J. Baer, Bishop H. Raymond Charles and Bishop David N. Thomas officiating. Interment in Salunga Mennonite Cemetery. Friends may call at The Frank S. Miller Funeral Home, 130 North Market Street, Elizabethtown, Pa. on Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 P.M. and at the church on Thursday one hour prior to the service. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made in his memory to The Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, Salunga, Pa. 17538.

Entered into rest in