Donna J. Long
 Donna Jean Long, 53, of Exton, formerly of Lancaster, PA and originally of Lansford, PA, died November 18th, 2007 at the Inn at Freedom Village in Coatesville following a lengthy illness.

A graduate of Panther Valley High School and Lock Haven University, she was employed as a computer systems programmer for Lockheed-Martin Space Systems in King of Prussia and formerly for Hamilton Bank in Lancaster.

Born in Coaldale, PA, she was the daughter of the late David M. Long and Jean (Husman) Long of Lansford. She was an active member of Messiah Lutheran Church in Downingtown where she taught Sunday School for several years. While in Lancaster, she was a volunteer docent at Wheatland, the presidential estate of James Buchanan. She was a Civil War era history buff and an ardent fan of the movie "Gone with the Wind" and all things Victorian. She was an avid reader, enjoyed all types of word puzzles, and was very talented in knitting and other needle-crafts.

Surviving in addition to her mother are her brother Daniel and his wife Patricia of West Deptford, NJ, a niece, Alyssa, a nephew, Matthew and many dear aunts and cousins.

Friends and relatives are invited to celebrate her life at a memorial service on Saturday, April 5th, at 1 p.m. at Messiah Lutheran Church, 46 West Lancaster Avenue, Downingtown, PA 19335. Interment will be private at the convenience of the family. In her memory, contributions may be made to Messiah Lutheran Church at the above address.
