Retired Tech Sgt (TSgt), Robert B. "Bob" Goldman, 74, died at his home in Millersville, on April 1, 2008, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Much of Bob's life was spent abroad;

first in the Korean Conflict as a tail gunner, spending time in Japan for 9 years, France, and England for 9 years, including many other out of the way locales, for a total of 23 1/2 years. He retired in England, but continued to live in the country, working the daytime in the Research Dept. of British Steel in Corby, Northamptonshire while studying on academic scholarships with the University of Maryland and Troy State University European Divisions in the evenings. Upon graduation with his Master's Degree in Business Management, Robert returned to the U.S.A. where the family resided for 9 years in Texas before moving to Pennsylvania.

It was in England that he met his wife, Dr. Jane Alden-Goldman, a Journalism Professor at Millersville University and the couple celebrated 32 years of love, companionship, friendship and marriage.

A life member of the VFW, the military and especially the Air Force was extremely close to his heart and never a day passed that the military life did not come up for discussion. His former vets and current service personnel were among the people TSGT Goldman admired most.

TSGT was also well-known in the Millersville area, working with his wife chaperoning students from the English and Journalism Clubs on a wide variety of activities in which they participated. Bob's practical hands could be seen in the props and structures of the Robert Burns and Medieval Knight Celebrations staged by the students.

In Loving Memory of Stacy Ann Landis
July 16, 1984 - April 03, 2003

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for a part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

We love & miss you,

John S. Shirk

John S. Shirk, 91, of Manheim Township, who forged a second career as a civic leader while managing two family farms, died Tuesday at Lancaster General Hospital of renal failure after a month-long illness.

Able to talk with equal ease about dairy farming and municipal government, he was keenly interested in the history and future of Manheim Township. Profiling him in a Lancaster Sunday News story in 1988, a reporter cited candor coupled with a willingness to tackle controversy and take strong views as his trademarks while serving on the township's Board of Commissioners.

Shirk, whose education began in a local one-room school, was a graduate of Mercersburg Academy and Princeton University and did graduate work at the University of Chicago.

During World War II, he served four years in the U.S. Navy as a flight instructor and transport pilot in both the Pacific and Atlantic theaters, achieving the rank of lieutenant senior grade.

After retiring in 1968 from sales and management at Daffin Mobile Products in Lancaster, Shirk took over management of the family farm where he lived in Manheim Township and an adjacent farm in Upper Leacock Township.

He also was elected to two terms on the Manheim Township Board of Commissioners, serving as president in 1988 and 1989.
