Sadie P. Brooks

Sadie P. Brooks, 95, of the Mennonite Home, Lancaster went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, March 4, 2008. Her husband, Victor L. Brooks, passed away in 1967.

Formerly of W. Main St., Mount Joy for 64 years, Sadie was a registered nurse in the Donegal School District, Mount Joy, retiring in 1977 after 29 years of service. Previously she was a nurse in the former Mount Joy Township School District and a visiting nurse. An active member of Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, Sadie served as a Sunday School Teacher for 43 years, was Chairwoman of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, and was the only woman ever to serve on the Board of Trustees. She also spent many years as a Church Camp Nurse for the United Methodist Camps in Mount Gretna and Pocono Plateau. Active in missions, she traveled to Honduras numerous times to work in orphanages and with medical societies. In her community, Sadie volunteered with the Mount Joy Meals on Wheels for 30 years, helped found the former Mount Joy Welfare Board, served with Hospice of Lancaster County for over 10 years, and with the Visiting Nurse's Association until the age of 92. In 1978 she received the Mount Joy Woman of the Year award and was also honored with the New Era Red Rose. A 1929 graduate of the former Hellam High School, Sadie received her RN in 1933 from Lancaster General Hospital, and her BS in Education from West Chester State College in 1953. She enjoyed reading, traveling, gardening, and spending time with her family. Sadie loved her Lord and dedicated her life to helping others, whether it was taking in a Vietnamese family until housing could be found, sharing her garden vegetables, or just concern from the heart.

Born in Lower Windsor Township, York County, she was the daughter of the late David and Ida Forry Paup. Sadie will always be in the

Born August 30, 1915 in Pittsburgh, PA, she was the daughter of Sebastian and Mary Stifter Pellkofer. She graduated from Zelienople High School and Business School in Pittsburgh. She was a member of St. Gregory's Catholic Church and had formerly been secretary of the Zelienople Chapter of Sixty Plus.

Rose P. Cooper

Rose P. Cooper, 92, formerly of Zelienople and Cranberry Township, passed away Monday evening, March 3, 2008, at Landis Homes in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where she lived for the past two years.

Born August 30, 1915 in Pittsburgh, PA, she was the daughter of Sebastian and Mary Stifter Pellkofer. She graduated from Zelienople High School and Business School in Pittsburgh. She was a member of St. Gregory's Catholic Church and had formerly been secretary of the Zelienople Chapter of Sixty Plus.

Rose was a strong and independent woman who will surely be missed. She never lost her great sense of humor and frequent smile. She enjoyed woodworking, ceramics, crocheting, playing cards and dancing. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John A. Cooper; her sisters, Catherine and Delores Pellkofer; her brother, Oswald Pellkofer; and her half-sister, Anne Pond.

Surviving are her sons and daughters-in-law, John A. Cooper, Jr. and wife, Barbara, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania; and James R. Cooper and wife, Diane, of Beaver, Pennsylvania; three granddaughters, Lisa Cooper Scoma and husband, Zachary, of Hartford, Connecticut; Stephanie Cooper of Monroeville, Pennsylvania; and Jennifer Cooper Wilson and husband, Paul of Phoenix, Arizona; and great-grandson, Micah Bryant Wilson, of Phoenix, Arizona.

A special thank you goes to the staff and employees of Landis Homes who helped Rose through these last few days.

Friends will be received at the Glenn-Kildoo Funeral Home, 219 East Grandview Ave., Zelienople, PA on Friday, March 7, 2008, from 7 to 9 p.m., and again on Saturday, March 8, 2008 from 8:00 to 9:00 AM. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Gregory's Catholic Church. In-

Lloyd A. B. Mitchell, Sr.

Lloyd A. B. Mitchell, Sr., Attorney, of Mount Joy, passed away Sunday, March 2, 2008, at the Susquehanna Valley Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, Columbia. His late wife, Nancy Lue Fauley Mitchell died in 1999. He was 80.

Attorney Mitchell received his law degree from the University of Virginia. Upon graduation, he was employed as a contract lawyer for the Vicks Chemical Corp. of NY, and AMF Aero Space Division of Greenwich, CT. He was transferred to the York AMF operations in 1964 and later worked for the former Carew Steel Corp. Lloyd moved to Mount Joy in 1982 while employed by the International Order of Foresters as an insurance agent. Prior to passing the PA Bar Exam in 1987, he was employed by the law office of Clymer and Musser PC of Lancaster. Later that year he began his private practice serving the surrounding counties until his illness required his retirement in January.

A proud veteran of WWII, he served as a Staff Sergeant in the US Army from 1946 to 1949. He was a dedicated member of the Mount Joy American Legion Post 185 where he was the current Judge Advocate and a Trustee. Active in the American Legion Department of Pennsylvania, he held the position of State Parliamentarian. An avid reader, Lloyd constantly kept abreast of current law developments through books and periodicals.

Born in Nyack, New York, he was the son of the late Arthur and Rose Lane Mitchell.

Lloyd is survived by his son, Lloyd, Jr. "Judge" married to Barbara Mitchell, Port Royal; two grandsons, Lloyd, III (Melanie Edwards) Mitchell, Seattle, WA; Benjamin Mitchell, East Petersburg; and a great grandson. Two sons, William and Peter Mitchell, preceded him in death.

A Memorial Service honoring Lloyd's life will be held at the Sheetz Funeral Home, Inc.,

February 28th 1984- March 5th 2006

It broke my heart to lose you. But you did not go alone. Part of me went with you. The day God called you home. A million times I thought of you. A million times I cried. If loving could have saved you, you would have never died. Forgive me Lord I'll always weep, for the son I loved, but could not keep. Not a day passes by that we don't think of your smiling face.

We love you

After retiring from the Navy in 1977, Admiral Oller joined Champlin Petroleum Company, first in Houston, TX and later in Fort Worth, TX, as General Manager, Corporate Supply and Distribution. In 1981, he was named President, Petroleum Operations and Support Services, New Orleans, LA, where he directed the development and filling of the U.S. Strategic Petroleum Reserve. During his tenure, 250 million barrels of crude oil were added to the reserve, increasing the inventory by an additional fifty percent. His last employment was Executive Vice President, Texas Eastern Products Pipeline Company, Houston, TX, where he was responsible for operations, engineering and systems development. In this position, he was able to modernize and automate operation of this extensive pipeline network. He retired from this position in 1990. During post-retirement, he established Maxwell Woodworks, Inc. to pursue commercially his lifelong dedication to cabinetmaking.

Admiral Oller is married to the former Doris S. Greenleaf of Mountville, PA. They have two sons, Arthur (a retired Navy Captain), wife Lee and children Sophie, Devin and Scott who reside in Walnut Creek, CA; and J. Richard, wife Sean and children Olivia and Jack who resides in Bennington, VT. A third son, William Jr. is deceased.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 8th, 2008 at the Falcons Landing Chapel, Falcons Landing Circle, Sterling, VA. Graveside services with full military honors will follow at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 6th, 2008 at Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, VA. Friends should arrive at the administration building on the grounds by 2:30.
