Weavers Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Titus S. Weaver, 609 Lincoln Road, Lititz, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a dinner given by their children.

The Weavers were married Feb. 26, 1931, at the home of the late John Sauder, a Mennonite bishop.

Weaver, a part-time custodian at Brownstown National Bank, is retired from the Pennfield Corp. He is a senior deacon at Hess Mennonite Church.

Mrs. Weaver is an active member of the Hess Senior Sewing Circle.

The couple has six children: Arlene and Pauline, wife of Mervin Boll, Lititz; Robert, Cleona; Evelyn, wife of John Witmer, Mountville; Romaine, wife of Melvin Huber, Myerstown; and Joyce, wife of Lee Mummau, Mount Airy, Md.
