

Craig R. Miller

Craig R. Miller, 54, of Ephrata, passed away on Thursday, March 13, 2014, at Hospice & Community Care, Mount Joy.

He was born in Harrisburg, to Sara (Ritter) Miller of Harrisburg and the late Charles R. Miller. Craig was the husband of Jessi Miller, with whom he shared 31 years of marriage.

He was a member of Calvary Church, Lancaster. Through the years, he served in various positions within the community. He was the church chairman while a member of the Lancaster Evangelical Free Church of Lititz and was actively involved with his daughter's travel softball team, the PA Power, for many years.

Craig started his working career with the former Horning Dodge of New Holland (currently the New Holland Auto Group) where he held various positions over the past 31 years. He was presently a commercial sales account manager.

In addition to his mother and wife, Craig is survived by two sons and a daughter: Travis, husband of Sarah Miller of Waukegan, IL; Chase, husband of Gretel Miller of Royersford, PA; and Joanie Miller, a junior at Conestoga Valley High School. He is also survived by his granddaughter, Helen Rose Miller, and a sister, Beth, wife of Joe Soutner of Millerstown, PA. A service to celebrate Craig's life will be held on Tuesday, March 18, 2014, at Calvary Church, 1051 Landis Valley Rd., Lancaster, with Pastor John Frye officiating. Visitation with the family will begin at 6 PM, with a service at 7 PM. A private interment will take place at Witness Park, Lititz.

In lieu of flowers, donations are being accepted for both Craig's daughter's college fund and Hospice & Community Care.
