

Paul E. Manning

Paul E. Manning, 75, of Millersville, PA, formerly a long time resident of North Andover, MA, died September 2 following a brief illness. Born in South Boston, MA, he was the son of the late Francis J. Manning and Irene (Reidy) Manning. He was the devoted husband of the late J. Joyce (Balsamo) Manning, who preceded him in death in 1971.

Paul served in the U.S. Air Force from 1951 to 1955 and was a graduate of Northeastern University with BS and MS in Physics. He worked with several companies in the areas of field engineering, missile systems, radar development, nuclear weapons and nuclear radiation effects, and aircraft avionics systems. He retired from the U.S. Department of Transportation. His hobbies included cabinetmaking, fine woodworking, finish carpentry, and spending time with his children and grandchildren.

Surviving is a son, Francis Manning, husband of Joy (Schelzel), of Lancaster, and their children, Harrison, Madeline and Bennett; a daughter, Irene, wife of James Forbes, of Farmington Hills, MI, and their three children, Sara, Carolyn and Emma; a son, Stephen Manning, husband of Karen (Pallaria), of North Andover, MA, and their two children, Alexander and Josephine; a sister, Joanne Pollock of Boston, MA and several nieces and nephews.

Private funeral services will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Mr. Manning's memory may be sent to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, 800 Corporate Circle, Harrisburg, PA 17110.
