

Jere W. Coldren

Jere W. Coldren, 63, of 409 E. Main Street, Mountville, PA went to be with His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Sunday, October 26, 2008 at Lancaster General Hospital.

He was a devoted husband to Lorraine R. Coldren, who will miss him dearly. They celebrated their forty-third year together on September 4, 2008.

Born in Lancaster, PA, he was the son of the late Floyd Coldren and Mary Hahn Coldren Campbell, his beloved mother.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Jill, of Millersville, his son, Jere M. Coldren, married to Deborah Huber Coldren and grandson Trenton, of Manheim PA; a sister, Sandra, married to William (Bill) Galebach, of Lancaster, PA.

Fifty-five nieces and nephews also survive him. Preceding him in death was his stepfather, Paul Campbell, and a nephew, Wayne Matroni.

Jere served in the United States Army during the Vietnam Era, where he met his wife Lorraine.

He was baptized in the Christian Faith and was a Believer.

He enjoyed traveling, spending time with his son at his business, watching the Phillies and experienced the thrill of skydiving at the age of sixty. He retired in 2006 from Maple Grove Transport, a family-owned business. As per Jere's request, there will be no viewing and the immediate family will hold private services. If desired, memorial contributions may be sent in Jere's name to the charity of one's choice. Jere will be truly missed by all who knew and loved him. May Peace and Love encompass our whole family through this deep loss.

Fred F. Groff, Inc.

www.lifecelebration.com