OBITUARY.

Death of a Most Estimable Woman.

On Wednesday night about eleven o'clock, calmly and peacefully passed from earth Mrs. F. A. Stanley, widow of the late Dr. J. C. Stanley, at her residence on East Vine street. Her disease was typhoid pneumonia. She leaves three sons—Winfield Scott, Augustus and Thaddens, the latter a printer, and one daughter, Miss Sue, well known as a public school teacher in this city.

Mrs. Stanley was the daughter of the late Augustus Kuhns, deceased, and was noted for her piety and deeds of charity and love. If there was suffering from sickness or disease among her friends, hers was the first hand to soothe, and many a bed of pain and suffering has been made comfortable by her gentle ministrations. In all her walks she was universally esteemed and beloved, and the circle that will mourn her loss will be an unusually large one.

The funeral will take place from her late residence, East Vine street, on to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon.

Mrs. Fianna Buch.

Mrs. Fianna Buch, wife of Addison Buch, of Elizabethtown, died very suddenly on Saturday afternoon, at her residence on South Market street, from heart failure. She was fifty-six years old and leaves a husband, two sons, J. Harvey and Royer, to mourn her death. Her funeral will take place from her late residence on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. Religious services will be held in the German Baptist church, of which denomination the deceased had been a faithful and consistent member for many years. The remains will be laid to rest in the Mt. Tunnel cemetery.
