

Dr. Stanley D. Smith Chiropractor

Dr. Stanley "Stan" Douglass Smith, 84, of Manheim, PA, passed away on June 12, 2008 at home after a brief illness.

Stan was preceded in death by Christina "Chris" his ever-loving wife of 60 years and 2 brothers, John and Ray (both of New York State). Surviving are 2 sons, Mark D. Smith and his wife, Eleanor, and Paul D. Smith and his life partner, Rebecca. Stan was born July 17, 1923 and raised in Liverpool, N.Y.

Stan served in the U.S. air force during WWII rising to the rank of Corporal. Marrying Christina Dudde in November 1947, Stan remained married for 60 years until his wife's death in July 2007. He was a graduate of Lincoln Chiropractic

College in 1952 and was a practicing Chiropractor for 56 years, retiring only 1 month before his demise.

Renown for his good nature and sense of humor, Stan loved a good pun or a bad joke and enjoyed swapping morsels of comic relief and wisdom with all who were willing. Stan also liked to travel and had an interest in WWII aviation. Not known to speak ill of anybody, Stan was well liked by all and will be sorely missed.

A memorial service will be held Monday, June 16, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 209 South Market Street, Mount Joy, PA. Friends and acquaintances are welcome to attend both the service and a gathering an hour before the service.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hospice of Lancaster County, 685 Good Drive, P. O. Box 4125, Lancaster, PA.
