

Andrew Taylor Nolt

Andrew Taylor Nolt, 20, of 105 Morningside Dr., East Earl, died Tuesday morning, September 30, 2008, at the Essa Flory Hospice Center in Lancaster after a two-year battle with cancer.

Born in Ephrata, he was the son of Arden E. and Teresa (Gehman) Nolt of East Earl. He graduated from Garden Spot High School in 2007 where he played basketball and baseball. During high school, he worked part time at Conestoga Wood. He was active with the Pine Grove Youth Group where he was a member. He had a passion for baseball and was a three time section all star in baseball. In his junior year, he was chosen for the all state baseball team and also won the Spartacus award in baseball. In his senior year, he won the scholar athlete award in basketball. He had been accepted at Messiah College where he wanted to continue his baseball career. His dream was to play major league baseball.

Surviving in addition to his parents is a brother, Adam E. Nolt, at home; paternal grandparents, Elmer and Ella (Shirk) Nolt of Reinholds; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Preceding him in death are his maternal grandparents, Allan and Mary Ellen (Haas) Gehman.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday, October 5, at 3 p.m. at Weaverland Mennonite Church, 210 Weaverland Valley Rd., East Earl with the Reverend Jonathan Yoder officiating. Interment will be in the adjoining cemetery. Viewing will be held at the Weaverland Mennonite Church on Saturday from 6-9 p.m. and on Sunday from 2-3 p.m. If desired, contributions may be made to The Sarcoma Alliance, 775 E.
