

Justin E. Swartz

Justin E. Swartz, age 25, of York, died at 2:45 p.m. Friday in Lancaster County from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. He was the husband of Erin N. (Gochenauer) Swartz, whom he married on May 9, 2008.

Born December 18, 1982 in York, a son of the late Joseph E. and Carla J. (Flury) Swartz, he was a graduate of YTI, receiving an Associates Degree in Specialized Business. He was employed as an account executive at Apple One Employment Services in Camp Hill. He was a member of the York Young Professionals and loved meeting new people. He enjoyed customizing his Harley-Davidson, traveling, working on his house, and had a great interest in history.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Swartz is survived by his twin sister, Maggie J. Swartz of York; paternal grandmother Beulah B. (Mundy) Swartz of York; father-in-law, Bill Gochenauer of Columbia; mother-in-law, Elizabeth Feiler, and her husband Gerald, of Mountville, a great aunt, Joan Schildt of York; a number of aunts, uncles and cousins; and his beloved American Bulldog, Henry.

Funeral services are scheduled for 2:00 PM Thursday at Kuhner Associates Funeral Directors, 863 South George Street, York (the former Hahn Home), with The Rev. Cathy H. Sherry, Pastor of Mount Zion United Church of Christ, officiating. Viewings will be 6-8:00 PM Wednesday and 1-2:00 PM Thursday. Graveside services are scheduled for 2:00 PM Friday at Mount Rose Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Justin Swartz Memorial Fund, c/o YTI Career Institute, 1405 Williams Road, York, PA 17402.
