

Edith L. Pullan

Edith L. Pullan, 90, resident of Willow Valley Manor North in Lancaster for 14 years and former resident of Wayne for 40 years, died at Lancaster General Hospital on October 23, 2008.

She was married to the late Walter R. Pullan, Jr. for 64 years; he died in March 2006. Born in Dansville, NY, she was the daughter of the late Franklin J. and Bessie Canfield Lemen.

A graduate of Dansville Central High School and the former New Jersey College for Women, Edith was a homemaker. She was a member of Wayne Presbyterian Church and the Daughters of the American Revolution. Edith previously volunteered at the Trading Post Consignment Shop at Fox Chase Cancer Center and was involved with the Philanthropic Educational Organization Foundation. She enjoyed antiques and was a founding member of the Waynesborough Country Club.

Surviving Edith are her three children, Nancy, wife of Robert Telkins of Houston, TX, Jean, wife of Greg Gaul of Berwyn and James Barron 'Barry', husband of Jean Kelley Pullan of Gulph Mills; two grandchildren, Scott Gaul and his wife residing in New Haven, CT and Lauren Gaul of New York City. Edith is also survived by her brother James Lemen of Buffalo, NY.

A memorial service will be held in the Johnson Auditorium of Willow Valley Manor North on Saturday, Nov. 1st at 11:30 AM. Burial at the convenience of the family will take place in Greenmount Cemetery, Dansville, NY. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Mathias J. Brunner Nurse Education Fund, 600 Willow Valley Square, Lancaster, PA 17602, or to Fox Chase Cancer Center, 333 Cottman Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19111.
