

Lehman L. Fasnacht

Lehman L. "Lem" Fasnacht, 55, of Denver, entered into rest on Thursday, May 29, 2008 at the Reading Hospital following a long illness. He and his wife, Vicky L. (Paul) Fasnacht, celebrated 34 years of marriage on May 4. Born in Stevens, he was a son of the late Leon and Gladys (Showalter) Fasnacht.

Lem owned Golden Eagle Comics at the Fairgrounds Square Mall for 22 years. He was a member of Mohn's Memorial E.C. Church, where he was a former Trustee, served on the Official Board, sang in the choir and organized and ran the Pillars Senior Citizen Group. He coached baseball and soccer when his sons were younger, graduated from Cocalico High School in 1970, and was a former Boy Scout and Scout Leader. Lem loved comics, anything to do with sports, and was an avid fan of the San Diego Chargers.

Surviving in addition to his wife are sons, Scott A. and Bryan D. Fasnacht, both of Denver; brothers, Larry L. (Sally), Denver, Lorin L., Reinholds, L. Leslie (Carol), and Lonnie L., both of Stevens; and sisters, Louise L. Roth, Adamstown, and Linda L. (David) Weik, Denver. He was predeceased by a brother Luther.

The Funeral will be on Tuesday at 7:30 PM, viewing from 5:30-7:30 PM in the Roseboro Funeral Home, 533 Walnut St., Denver. Interment in Fairview Cemetery, Denver at the convenience of the family. www. roseborofuneralhome.com
