

Ross Frey, Jr.

Ross Frey, Jr., 77, of Willow Street, went to be with the Lord after dying unexpectedly October 22, 2008, at Lancaster General Hospital. Born January 16, 1931, in Conestoga, he was the son of the late Ross J. and Rella Warfel (Hess) Frey. He is survived by his wife, Nancy (Witmer) Frey of Willow Street.

Mr. Frey did not come from a farm family; he and his wife successfully started and operated their own registered dairy herd for many years, as their Future View name always kept them looking forward. Upon retiring from the dairy industry in 1981, Ross continued to farm while beginning his second career as a custodian at Martin Meylin Middle School. He took great pride in his work there, retiring from the middle school in 1997. Upon his second retirement, Mr. Frey continued to stay active with his daily chores and mowing around the farm. A member of Pequea Brethren in Christ Church, he was very involved in both the church activities and the everyday activities of those he loved the most. A humble leader who led by example, Ross had a gift for seeing beauty in life's simple things. He loved his Lord and his family and took special pride in his five grandchildren. Ross will be greatly missed by all of those who had the privilege of knowing him.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Frey is survived by his daughter, Kathleen, wife of Alan Railing, of Willow Street; his son, Jeff R., husband of Sue A. Frey, of Willow Street; two sisters: Reba Groff and Regina Boose; five grandchildren: Jeremy, Andrew, and Ben Railing, and Ross and Clara Frey; and three great-granddaughters: Carly, Jenna, and Emmie Railing.

Funeral services are scheduled for 3:00 p.m. Sunday, October 26, 2008, at Pequea Brethren in Christ Church, 40 Church Road, Lancaster, with Rev. Robert Brody and Rev. Dan Houck officiating. Viewing will be from 1:00 p.m. until the time of the service at the church. Interment will follow the service in the adjoining church cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Pequea Brethren in Christ Church Benevolent Fund, 40 Church Road, Lancaster, PA 17603.
