SENSENIQ—BURKHOLDER

Abram R. Sensesig, son of Mrs. Lydia Ann Sensesig, Blue Ball and Miss Virginia H. Burkholder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burkholder, Ephrata were married Sunday noon by Rev. N. L. Landis at his residence in Neffsville.

The attendants were Misses Mary Wenger, Katie Gehman, John Burkholder, brother of the bride and John Sensesig. Mr. and Mrs. Sensesig are spending their honeymoon in Lima, Ohio, and will return by way of Niagara Falls.

Cheese Makes Many Ill.

About forty persons were made ill on Wednesday after partaking of English cheese that was served at luncheon at the residence of Rudy H. Herr, three miles from East Petersburg, after the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Susan Landis, the illness being due to ptomaine poisoning. A few were taken sick at the table and others not until a little later. Some of the cheese was sent to friends of the Herr family, and when this was eaten on Thursday those who partook were also made ill. To-day all are nearly recovered. Some of the cheese has been sent to Prof. R. C. Schiedt, at Franklin and Marshall College, to be analyzed.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

A double wedding was solemnized at the home of Bishop Abram W. Martin, of near Intercourse, on Wednesday evening, October 21st, at 8 o'clock, when he united in marriage Miss Elma K. Denlinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Denlinger, of Leola, and Mr. Noah W. Wenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Wenger, of near Bareville, Miss Mary W. Wenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Wenger and Mr. John H. Burkholder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burkholder, of Ephrata R. D. They were attended by Misses Florence Wenger and Martha Denlinger, sisters of the brides, and by Messrs. Samuel S. Wenger and Luke M. Wenger. They left on an extended wedding trip to Ohio and Illinois.

WENGER.—Bro. Joseph E. Wenger was suddenly taken away in a railroad accident, aged 79y.

Bro. Wenger was for over fifty years a minister of the Gospel in the Mennonite Church in Groffsdale and Metzlers District, Lancaster Co., Pa. He had attended the funeral service of Bro. A. G. Weaver at Weaverland and on his way home was struck by a P. R. R. train west, near New Holland, Pa. His wagon was torn to pieces and he was picked up a corpse, so mangled that it was hard for his friends and acquaintances to identify him, which was done by his horse, blanket, purse, etc.

He leaves one daughter and eleven grandchildren. Bish. Michael Horst of Orrville, Ohio, is a brother-in-law. He also leaves two brothers and three sisters to mourn his sudden departure.

His ordination, as near as could be learned, ante-dates the ordination of any other minister in the Lancaster Co., Conference. Funeral service was held Nov. 9, at the Groffsdale M. H. Probably fifteen hundred people viewed the remains. The services were conducted by Bish. Benj. Weaver, Bish. N. Landis and Pre. John Lefevre at his former home and at the church the sermon was preached by Bish. Jacob N. Brubacher. Text, Heb. 13:7, 8, 17 in English followed by Bish. Benj. Weaver with a short address in German.

For quite a number of years he had retired from active labor on his farm, devoting his time almost entirely to the ministry, in which he was actively engaged until his sudden calling away. While not exercising himself as much in public speaking as much as formerly, leaving that for the younger ministers, but caring for the feeble and aged and the work of the church in general he was as active as in former days. Our loss we feel deeply and many of our enfeebled ones feel their loss so much the more as they miss his visits, not only the members of his flock but any in sickness or trouble, whether young or old were remembered by him.

"Rest to his soul and peace to his ashes."
