

Clyde V. Stauffer

Clyde V. Stauffer, age 82, of 1520 Harrisburg Pike, Lancaster, PA, passed away at the Mennonite Home on Monday.

Born in Blue Ball, PA, he was the son of the late Barton A. and Estelle M. Ziemer Stauffer and the husband of the late Ruth Buckwalter Stauffer, who died in 1992.

He was a member of the 1943 graduating class of Manheim Township High School.

Clyde was a construction estimator for the Stauffer Home Improvements Company, the shipping manager for the former DeWalt Company and the export manager for Black & Decker Company.

He was a founding member of the Neffsville Mennonite Church.

Clyde enjoyed stream bank fishing, making woodcrafts and studying and collecting American Indian Artifacts.

He is survived by three daughters, Jean E., wife of Earl G. Roberts, Lebanon, PA, Phyllis M., wife of Bill Clements, Baltimore, MD, Brenda S., wife of Charles Zdenek, Providenciales, Turks & Caicos Islands, two granddaughters, Allison E. Roberts, San Francisco, CA, Lisa Adara Zdenek, Turks & Caicos Islands, a grandson, Christopher M. Roberts, Rochester, NY, and a sister, Mildred, wife of Mike Nolt, Lampeter, PA. He was preceded in death by a sister, Helen Stauffer, and a brother, Robert Stauffer.

Funeral services and interment will be private at the convenience of the family. Please omit flowers. If desired, memorial contributions may be sent to the Benevolent Care Fund, Mennonite Home Communities, 1520 Harrisburg Pike, Lancaster, PA 17601. Fred F. Groff, Inc. www.lifecelibration.com