

Richard "Dick" W. Slaugh, Jr.

Richard "Dick" W. Slaugh, Jr., 79, entered into rest on Thursday, June 26, 2008 at Lancaster General Hospital following a brief illness. He was surrounded by loving family members. Born in Lancaster, he was the son of the late Richard W. and Sara Slaugh. Dick was the beloved husband of Virginia A. Slaugh. They celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary this past February.

Dick was a graduate of JP McCaskey High School, Class of 46. He attended Carnegie Mellon University and graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1951. Afterward, he served in the US Army for two years. Dick was employed as a draftsman, designing homes for Bogar Lumber Company, Murray Builders, and Legacy Homes, Inc. He also designed the facilities for Trojan Boat and worked as a real estate agent for Slaugh Blumenstock and Slaugh Cooper, Inc. after owning his own construction company.

In addition to his wife, Virginia, he is also survived by two daughters, Debra, wife of Tom Bastian, Mountville, Nancy, wife of Kevin Fay, McLean, VA; two sons, Timothy, husband of Nancy, Lancaster, Robert, husband of Pam, Mountville; sixteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. A brother, Gerald Slaugh, preceded him in death.

Dick was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church where he sang in the choir for over 40 years. He was an avid bridge player, bowler, and gardener. He also enjoyed being a member of Silver Threads and the JP McCaskey Alumni Association with his wife. His most memorable times were family gatherings and celebrations.

The Memorial Service will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 29, 2008 at Trinity Lutheran Church, 31 S. Duke Street, Lancaster. Visitors will be received one hour prior to the service. Interment of the ashes will be at the family's convenience. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Trinity Lutheran Church. Arrangements made by Kearney A. Snyder Funeral Home. For more information or to send an online condolence please visit www.kearneyasnryderfuneralho...