Elinore Claire
Dickerman Taylor

Elinore Claire Dickerman Taylor, 83, of 300 Willow Valley Lakes Drive, Willow Street, PA, formerly of New Haven, CT, died on Friday, February 8, 2008 at her residence.

Born in Hamden, CT, she was the widow of Franklin Swift Taylor who died on May 1, 2005. She was the daughter of the late Clifford F. and Claire Yeager Dickerman.

She worked as a Real Estate Sales Manager for Veggo F. Larson Company in Hamden, CT, for 14 years.

Currently she was attending West Willow United Methodist Church. At one time she was an active member of Grace and St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Hamden, CT, and served as a Past Matron of the Palestine Chapter of the Eastern Star in New Haven. She was the first woman member of the New Haven Real Estate Board.

She enjoyed golfing, traveling, and gardening as well as sharing a flower for a friend, sailing through life with her husband, Franklin, and making new friends along the way. She will be remembered as helping others whenever she could with her heart of gold. Elly, as family and friends knew her, was the kind of woman you want for a mother, both sweet and loving. She will also be remembered for keeping in touch with a note, phone call or visit.

She is survived by three children; Ronalee Trogner, wife of John S. Trogner, PA; and David Bennett, VA; Shirley A., wife of Timothy Godsted, FL; Sister, Crescence Lyke, CT; three grandsons, and two great granddaughters. Eight nieces and two nephews also survive her. OBITUARIESHarriette Jane Witmer

Harriette Jane Witmer, in her 89th year, of Strasburg passed away at Landis Homes in Lititz on February 9, 2008.

She was the daughter of the late Harry F. and Mabel (Ames) Huber.

A former kindergarten teacher in Strasburg, Harriette had also previously worked as a tour guide for Dutchland

Tours; and as a realtor until her retirement. She volunteered for the Strasburg Playground Association and Conestoga View, as well as many other charitable causes. For 27 years, Harriette was President of the Conestoga View Auxiliary. Additionally, she belonged to the Strasburg Senior Citizens and the Paradise American Legion Auxiliary. A marvelous cook who enjoyed entertaining, playing cards and board games, she also loved working in her yard. Harriette grew beautiful roses in her large flower garden and enjoyed cutting the grass on her riding lawn mower. She had traveled extensively in both the United States and abroad. Harriette sewed and completed creative and meticulous embroidery work. An avid reader who enjoyed writing, she contributed numerous articles to the Sunday News "I Know A Story" column. She remained a loyal Phillies baseball fan and she enjoyed attending the team's spring training in Clearwater, Florida.

Preceding her in death were her two sisters: Elma Eyman and Mildred Pollock. Many nieces and nephews loved Harriette. Her two children will lovingly and sadly miss her: Donald W. Witmer, Jr., of Paradise and Jill S. McVey of Lancaster. Also left behind to mourn her passing is her granddaughter, Jennifer, wife of TJ Mullen, Middle River, Maryland. Harriette thought the world of her family—they were indeed her life.

A memorial service will be announced at a later date.
