

Mary Anne Garber

Posted: Monday, November 24, 2008 12:00 am

Mary Anne Garber, 65, of South Cherry Lane, Ronks, died on Saturday morning, November 22, 2008, after an automobile accident.

Born in Lancaster on July 15, 1943, she was the daughter of Ruth (Buckwalter) Weaver and the late J. Robert Ruhl. She was the wife of Paul L. Garber and they observed their 44th wedding anniversary on May 2.

Surviving in addition to her husband and mother is a daughter, Dawn, wife of Timothy E. Darling, Norma, NJ. She was predeceased by her step-father; Roy M. Weaver.

She was a member of Mellinger Mennonite Church and enjoyed the friendship of the Circle of Love Sunday School Class.

Mary Anne enjoyed collecting teddy bears and loved decorating. She was known for making meals for her church and catering for several local charities. Mary Anne enjoyed reading and listening to music and especially loved Christmas Carols. She enjoyed traveling to the Washington D.C. area with her husband, daughter, and son-in-law.

Mary Anne was employed by Lancaster Mennonite School and also worked until recently with the Stoltzfus Meats firm at their market in New Castle, Del.

Services will be held at the Mellinger Mennonite Church, 1916 Lincoln Highway East, Lancaster on Wednesday, 10 a.m. Friends will be received on Tuesday evening, 6-8 p.m. and Wednesday morning, 9-10 a.m. at the Mellinger Mennonite Church. Interment following the service will be at the Paradise Mennonite Cemetery.

Those who desire may make memorial contributions to Mennonite Central Committee, PO Box 500, Akron, Pa. 17501

Murray Miller serving the family. Arrangements by the Reynolds Funeral Home, 144 East State Street, Quarryville, Pa.