Other diaries have not been fully examined, and this content advisory may apply to them as well. Excerpts from Peter Nissley's travel journal were transcribed and published in Mennonite Family History, Vol. 12, No. 4, October, 1993.

Title	Hans Tschantz Papers
Description	1700s sermon book of Hans Tschantz, handwritten in German script, as well as transcriptions and translations of his sermons. Based on the wording of the German-language Bible verses he cites, Tschantz appears to have been using a pre-revision (1539/1540) Swiss Froschauer Bible, most likely the 1536 version. He was most likely to have been the Hans Tschantz who settled in Brecknock Township, Berks County, as the Lancaster County bishop of the same name was opposed to footwashing, which is mentioned in one of this Hans' sermons. He may have been Amish.

Reed writes that the journals "include stories of Eastern Mennonite College in the mid-Sixties, Eastern Board of Missions and their mission in Hokkaido, Japan in the same period, the Mennonite Publishing House in the early Seventies, the 'Mennonite Arts Renaissance' of the Seventies and urban Mennonite mission in San Francisco in the early Eighties.
