Buchwalder Family record in Froschauer Bible

Ano 1735 auff
mar deinei ist der hanslei
buchwalder geboren
Starb den 27ten September A. D. 1808

Er Ruhet

(The penmanship is good here, but the spelling is very poor. I see nothing to suggest March 30.
They may have that from another source. If mar deinei is meant for St. Martin's Day, it should be November 11.)

In the year 1735 on St. Martin's
Day (November 11) Hänsli
Buchwalder was born.
He died on September 27, A. D. 1808
May he rest!

Ano 1738 ist das
lisei buchwalder den 2
mertzin geboren
Starb im Jahr 1757 1757

(It seems clear that this was written in after some of the others who were born later. Did they forget to enter it at the time?)

In the year 1738 Lisei (Lizzie, or Elisabeth) Buchwalder was born on the 2nd of March.
She died in the year 1757

Ano 1740 ist aber ham

Starb den 7ten January

In the year 1740 Abraham (the spelling is aber ham) Buchwalder was born on the 27th of August month (The year is gone with the broken margin)
He died on the 7th of January,
(The year is missing, the margin is broken away.)

May he rest!

the 24th of (month torn away with the margin)

He died on the 14th day of November at twelve minutes past four o'clock in the morning, 1805 May he rest!

Ano 1746 (ist) das

be meant for Veronica) was born on the 10th of June.

The Bichwalder (Buckwalter) Family record in the Froschauer Bible.

We are fortunate indeed to have this record. It is not quite legible at all points. The writer did not spell well and parts of some of the lines are broken away or eaten by acid. The person who made up the record for the card file must have had access to this when it was in much better condition. The fact that there is more information on the card than what this contains suggests that there are other original sources. There are several seeming discrepancies. Which is right or wrong?
