A DEACON CHOSEN.

Christian G. Weaver Becomes by Lot Deacon of an Old Mennonite Church.

WEAVERLAND, Dec. 27.—[Special.]—Last Sunday the Old Mennonites at this place nominated thirteen candidates for deacon in place of Daniel Burkholder who left the church to follow the new branch here. Today the new deacon was chosen from the candidates by lot; the same way in which ministers are chosen.

The book in which the slip of paper was found was in the hands of Christian G. Weaver, and he was at once ordained deacon of the Weaverland charge. The office is held for life, and according to the rules of the church he can never resign.

Mr. Weaver is a carpenter and is well known throughout the eastern end of the county. in the year 1894
